Inspector John Manis announced the drive will begin with pick-up service concentrated in the southwest section of the city, starting Monday, May 18.

Interprets Vote As Endorsement For Moderate Constitutional Government

Senator Spessard L. Holland declared that his resounding victory in the Democratic primary May 5 was a "loud and clear" voice for moderate, constitutional government.

Senator Holland established new political history in Florida by carrying every county in the state's 67 counties. It was the greatest sweep of his political career.

He was first elected to office as Polk County Judge in 1920. He was elected State Senator in 1932, serving eight years. Governor in 1940, and U. S. Senator in 1946. He will run for a third term in 1968.

Lions Told Years Of Effort Reap Productive Fla. Cane Crops

A report on repeated efforts to grow sugar cane in Florida over a four century period of time down to our present full-scale production was enthusiastically related by Emmett Trammell, a senior at Belle Glade High School and member of Future Farmers of America, at the Lions Wednesday luncheon meeting.

Belle Glade's FFA boys, under the leadership of Sam Lowell, have been intensely interested in cane production as grower and harvester and have the distinction of being the only chapter belonging to sugar grower cooperative. They have just completed harvesting 20 acres of cane and have an additional 12 acres planted this year.

Trammell reported there are 10 mills in operation in Florida to grind the 1963-64 crop of approximately 150,000 acres which will produce an average of 40 tons of cane per acre. From humble beginnings, "experimentation" has helped in developing a multi-million dollar industry which has made the United States self-sufficient in her need for sugar," he said.

Guy Wilson, also an FFA member, who won the district championship in harmonica playing in Arcadia the first of May, rendered several selections for the club. He will go to Daytona June 8 for state competition with other FFA district winners.

Visitors at the club were John Kirk and Kermit Dell.

Public Hearing For Davis

South Bay's suspended Chief of Police has asked in writing for a bill of particulars and a hearing before the Commission on June 11th, as offered in the resolution of suspension, dated June 8th.

Facts concerning the suspension, according to information given the HERALD are: On Friday, April 1st, "Bills Place" was operated by Lucius Carter was paraded by Sheriff's deputies with 32 persons listed. More than $600 in money was impounded. It is reported, and Carter placed under $6,000 bond.

Carter is reported to have been released on bond on Saturday morning, and despite the fact that the ruling party "busted" his equipment, games were in progress Saturday night.

Monday night a second raid was made on the same place and Lucius was again in the toils of the law, along with 13 others.

The Commission charged Davis with Mal-mis and nonfeasance — defined by Webster as "negligence or failure to perform a duty the charges are "severe."

Price Resignation Declined By Board

Florida East Coast Railroad, District 6 includes SW Avenue E South to SW Avenue G — South to SW Avenue I — West 16th Street — PLUS West Canal South to SW Avenue E — South Main Street West to SW 4th Street.

The city ordinance requiring enforcement and control of garbage and trash removal and disposal requires:

1. Sufficient garbage and trash cans shall be provided to hold the accumulation of garbage and trash for three to four days.
2. Garbage or trash shall not be deposited on-ground or surrounding area.
3. Removal of garbage will be twice a week for residence — three times a week for business — or at the address of the Inspector.
4. Violation of this ordinance as provided in Chapter 1 — Sec. 14.

Concentrated pick-up schedules for Districts 1 thru 4 will be announced next week.

L. L. Price, long time resident, enthusiastic leader and promoter of the Glades and executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce for the past six years, was placed on formal leave of absence by a unanimous vote of the board of directors at their Wednesday night meeting.

The official action was taken counteracting a letter of resignation submitted by Mr. Price because of his serious illness.

"I. L. has given his very heart and soul to promoting the Glades and has been an outstanding citizen and worker for our community," board president John L. Grady volunteered.

"His services will not be easily replaced."

Thirty-five years in the community and in the Democratic column, approximately 46,000 voted in the Governor's race, and 25,864 voting for this County's gubernatorial candidate, with 18,800 straying to other candidates.

The reported lead of the "Political Accident" from "Bud" — Had — over "Bud" is 20,000. Had these 18,800 "strays" voted for "Bud," Palm Beach voters would be regarded as the prospects of a man who is the Governor's candidate.

"Without their sturdy effort the near-winning results could not have been attained. I promise my best and continued effort for the constitutional, moderate approach to government for all Americans."

McLeod Injured In Boat Accident

J. V. Genie McLeod is in Belle Glade Memorial Hospital with serious leg injuries suffered in a near-tragic boat accident while he was fishing alone the lake last Friday afternoon.

According to reports McLeod was about 4 miles out on Long Point when he fished until before starting to move on to another spot. He had lost the motor in gear and was knocked out into the water when he cranked the motor. The boat failed, he was swept underneath by the fast moving waters and his right leg severely cut by the churning propeller.

McLeod walked in near waist deep water toward the shore, but was rescued by a searching party, organized after fishermen had spotted the empty boat and turned in a report.

"The question of an ELECTION of Police is heard Monday when the case is discussed."

Chief Davis has been elected five times since his original term.

There's an apparent divergence of ideas of the Chief's duties and prerogatives between him and the City Commission.

Special Assistant Gene Ellis of the Solicitor's office reports that the investigation of gambling in South Bay resulted from complaints over a period of time, and that the hour of the raid was controlled by the "timeliness" of the supporting evidence for the search warrant, which was secured less than an hour before the actual raid.

The second raid came about through complaints from South Bay that activities were again under way Saturday and Sunday nights.

Folks caught in the second raid had addresses from various parts of the Florida localities, from points 75 to 100 miles distant.

Life Of Lee Boy

Bitten By Rattler

Pete Alan Lee, five-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Lee of 1225 E. NW 12th St., Belle Glade is as good as new, after being bitten by a rattlesnake last Friday.

The child was bitten twice on the foot by a three-foot long diamond back rattler down in the Big Cypress at the Lee's cabin. Due to the fast action of his father, a tourniquet was promptly used on the child's leg by Diane Ray Martin and while his mother held the boy down, his father cut each fang mark and sucked out some of the "deadly poison out of each mark. Later on the way to the nearest hospital (Clewiston General) more of the poison was taken out.

After a 1½ hour drive on reaching the hospital, an Australian snake bite kit and anesthetic was used. The boy was real sick from the effects of the bites the first day, but was much better the second day.

The lucky child made a fast recovery after three days in the hospital, and is now in fine shape, but his parents were really worried for a while.

Is Juvenile Delinquency Beyond Control?

By Lewis Llewellyn
"Wherein shall a young man cleanse his way? By taking heed, thereto according to Thy word."

Psalm 119:9
Juvenile delinquency is a national problem of the first magnitude. Headlines frequently call our attention to the misdeeds of the younger generation. A national magazine recently documented with pictures the sordid story of the wrecking of an extensively furnished house by a handful of over-privileged delinquents at the end of an all-night party marking the debut of an heir.

A 12-year-old boy killed his 15-year-old brother with a shot gun blast, a few days ago, because the older boy refused to share an ice cream sundae with him.

But, while our attention is directed to the minority of young people who are making noticeable failures of their lives, thousands of other young people are asking themselves this question, "How can a teen-ager clean up his life?"

The answer is given here — by taking heed to it according to God's word. Who can seriously doubt that young people today would avoid many of the heartaches that come to them, if they would guide their lives by the principles set forth in the Bible?

When Russell H. Conwell, the

Student of Week

The students of the week for the job of Student Council President is Neil Walker. Neil has served our school, not only this year, but in the years past. He is also an active member of the Interest club. With his poise and enthusiastic attitude, Neil faithfully opened and conducted the pep rallies during the football season. He is in charge of the coming student council elections. This is an exceedingly hectic job which few recognize as being difficult.

Neil deserves much recognition for being a well-rounded citizen and student. What has happened to the manners of yesterday? It is impossible for everyone to say "yes, sir" and "no, sir" instead "uh" or "what?"

Manners, Manners, Manners

Some adults preach manners to us, some of these adults follow, and others do not; if they would follow the expression "practice what you preach," the actions of the younger group would become highly improved. Of course, adults are not the only ones having shady manners; but we the young people do realize our faults and also we do not try to shove guilt on someone else.

Boys, neither is it polite to tell the girls little white lies. One of the most assuring ways to ruin your reputation with the girls is to tell them a lie. A boy should never call right before a date and say something such as "I cannot make it tonight because Joe and I are going to work," but instead of working, they go to West Palm Beach. Neither should a boy try to get revenge by telling her that he has a date with another girl, when actually he has no date.

Girls are no exception. The most degrading thing a girl or woman can do is smoke or drink in public. If an individual considers either or both of these an essential, she should confine it to the privacy of her home. Most men and boys agree that this is a fault which is too common with women today, and it gives a first impression of low morals and ideals.

If everyone would display his manners as though he is proud of them, rather than ashamed, a life would be much brighter from day to day.

More than 2,000 men of the 25th Infantry Division played the part of guerrillas and inhabitants on the island who opposed the landing of 4,000 of the division's troops from ships and helicopters in this combined jungle warfare and counter-insurgency operation.

Richardson, an assistant gunner in Company B, 24 Battalion in the division's 34th Infantry regularly stationed at Schofield Barracks, Hawaii, entered the Army in June 1963. He completed basic training at Fort Gordon, Ga., and arrived in Hawaii in October 1963.

The 23-year-old soldier, whose father lives at 161 Carver St., is a 1959 graduate of Lake Shore High School, Belle Glade. He attended Roosevelt Jr. College, West Palm Beach.

Army Specialist Four Lawrence Robinson, Jr., 23, whose parents live on Route 2, Clewiston, Fla., participated as a member of the assault forces in Exercise WEST WIND, a joint Army-Navy-Marine Corps amphibious operation, on the Hawaiian Island of Molokai April 13-24.

More than 4,000 troops of the 25th Infantry Division were landed on the island's Papahauk Beach from helicopters and landing ships. After establishing a beachhead, the men moved inland to conduct jungle warfare and counter-insurgency operations against 2,000 of the division's men who took the part of guerrillas previously established on the island.

Specialist Robinson, a fire team leader in Company A, 1st Battalion of the 25th Division's 14th Infantry, regularly stationed at Schofield Barracks Hawaii entered the Army in January 1962. He completed basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C., and was last assigned at Fort Carson Colo.

Robinson is a 1960 graduate of Booker T. Washington High School in Moore Haven.

Film To Be Shown By Church Of God

The public is invited to see a film that is to be shown on Thursday night May 14th at the Belle Glade Church of God. There has been so much discussion on the effects of smoking that this should be helpful to those who want to know more. It has been widely shown throughout the country in High Schools and many public groups have viewed it.

The film actually shows a Lung Cancer operation in color. Pastor Sindle of the Church of God is encouraging all parents to bring their children to see this outstanding film. The film will begin at 8:30 p. m. after the regular Young Peoples service at the church to which the public is also invited.

Army Engineers Stayed Simulated Fla. Flood

Florida's famous coastline put flood-fighting exceeds the capabilities of state and local agencies. And third, he said, "we document flood results and gather hydrologic data which assists us in our planning for the future."

Florida, due to its geographic location is susceptible to hurricanes and resulting floods. "On Florida's flat terrain," Colonel Parfitt pointed out, "the water runoff rate is extremely slow and floods frequently last for long periods of time causing extensive damage."

Army Engineers staged the one-day test of their flood fighting capabilities in an exercise dubbed "Operations Floodgate."

District Engineer Col. H. R. Parfitt explained that the Army Engineers have a multi-purpose role in floodfighting. "We first are required to protect Government-built flood control works, including canals, levees and control structures."

"Additionally," Colonel Parfitt pointed out, "We can give limited aid to state and local agencies which are in imminent danger of high water or when we have been working on our project records and will have them finished by next week. We also had a business meeting April 27 and planned our end of the year picnic, which was held May 11."

Each of the club brought 50 cents to pay for our groceries. We fried chicken, baked beans and made salad. For drinks we made ice tea and grape punch. Mrs. Sellers made chocolate drop cake.

After we packed our picnic we went to Rardin Park to eat. We hiked up the dike jumped rope and played ball.

Attending were Mrs. Don Sellers, Mrs. Emmett Roberts, Patricia and par mascot Whickers, her dog, Mrs. Clarence Lee, Mardelle, Mike and Shannon Lee, Donna Connell, Tona White, Diane Hickman, Julie Clark, Linda Reeves, Peggy Baughman, Laura Acree and Deborah Thomas. Reporter, Deborah Thomas and serving in an advisory capacity for communities affected by storms.

Its biggest effort will be aimed at the Central and Southern part of Florida which are more hurricane and flood prone than the northern areas. Storm generated tides could cause staggering damage to highly developed coastal areas.

Army Engineers have completed about 40 percent of a $380 million Central and Southern Florida Flood Control Project covering 18 counties and 15,000 square miles of land. Although the project is only partially completed it has been estimated that the completed portion offered $4 in benefits for each $1 spent of the Multi-million dollar project. Obviously the protection capabilities are less than they will be when the entire project is completed.

Disastrous hurricanes of 1926 and 1934 across Lake Okechobee claimed the lives of more than 2,500 people. In the past year, there have been 130 known tropical storms. At least 32 of these have been dubbed hurricanes, and damage has exceeded half a billion dollars to coastal development.

Army Engineers invited the Red Cross, Office of Emergency Planning, Civil Defense and the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control Project to participate as observers or "players" in the one-day simulated storm.

Among the local talent participating in Opera Lyrica's big musical "FROM SHOWBOAT TO SOUTH PACIFIC," we find Milton O. Carpenter, popular baritone singer of the Glades who will appear — for the first time with the company as guest soloist. Carpenter, active on numerous fields of civic and community affairs, both as member of the Schol Board and of the Lions Club of Belle Glade, was instrumental in bringing Opera Lyrica's first production to Belle Glade ("BLOSSOM TIME" on November 16, 1963) under the sponsorship of the Lions Club of Belle Glade.

As a surprise, some other local talent will also appear on the program, possibly a husband and wife team, a terrific pianist-singer combination, according to Artistic Director Jules J. Gyor, who is trying to get the couple for the show.

Naturally, several professional singers of Opera Lyrica will also be on the program, among them — featured — Tenor Hugh Albee, vocal instructor of the Palm Beach Junior College in Lake Worth.

Albee was graduated from the University of Rochester, receiving his A. B. in music from the College of Arts and Sciences; his B. of Music in opera and oratorio, and M. of Music in music literature from the Eastman School of Music. He taught at the Rochester Institute of Technology, and was a member of the music faculty of the University of Buffalo, where he taught voice and performed in

UNCLE DAN from DOOLIE says:

Dear Mister Editor:
 I see by the papers where our war again poverty is moving along real good. The Bible says charity had ought to begin at home and our Congressmen was handling this poverty problem just like it was ordered in the Good Book. They started at home.

It was set back a little when that $10,000 a year hike in their pay had to be decided on a roll call vote. With a election coming up, they had to back off to keep their names out of the papers. Incidental, I am of the opinion that roll call votes are everything in the Congress would save the taxpayers a billion dollars.

was giving spittoons to friends for souvenirs and some was using them for flower pots. These spittoons run about $6 each and since we got 536 members in the Congress, this spittoon business puts a heap of money in circulation in the war again poverty.

Congressman Pike also reported it was a old custom in the Congress for ever member to sit presented with a comb and hair brush at the start of every session. Judging from the pictures I see in the papers, about half our Congressmen is baldheaded. I'm strong, Mister Editor, for all these fringe benefits our Congressmen was giving in the war again poverty, including swimming pools, barber shops and free lunches, but I think if they was turning off the lights in the White House to save on the power bill, they could save a little money by skipping baldheaded Congressmen with them combs and brush.

But they was another side of the coin, Mister Editor. Senator Fulbright of Arkansas reported the other day that a heap of them small countries was doing away with representative government as a "economy move." He told the Senate he hoped the American people "would continue to regard the Congress as one extravagance with which they will not part." So I reckon free haircuts and free spittoons is better than free jail.

Your truly,
 Uncle Dan

Lake Harbor Baptist

Homecoming May 24

The First Baptist Church of Lake Harbor will hold their annual Homecoming Services May 24th at the church.

The day will begin with morning worship services, followed by a covered dish dinner and in the afternoon there will be a period of singing.

Everyone is invited to come and enjoy the fellowship.

We drove 3,243 miles to make a point about our Super Turbine transmission

You can do it on the way to the grocery store

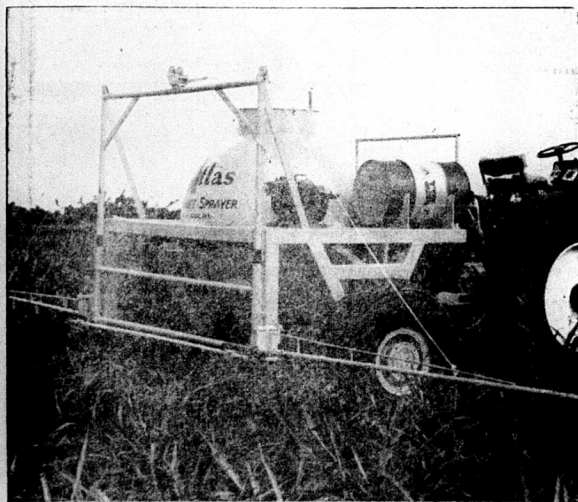

Would we drive a Buick with a Super Turbine transmission? You bet. Obviously you aren't planning to drive 3,243 miles to prove your new Buick is economical. And you can't expect to get as many miles per gallon as the experts in the Economy Run. Still, it is nice to know you can win the economy run around town. And the good looks prize at the same time. See your Buick dealer about it. No doubt he'll think of a number of other reasons to buy a Buick.
